

KNOW YOUR COLLEGE INTRODUCTION TO THE INSTITUTION

Introduction:

Netaji Subhas Ashram Mahavidyalaya was first conceptualized in the Netaji Subhas Ashram. In this Ashram, the members, who were dedicated social workers, planned to open a school named Netaji Subhas School for the literary and cultural education of the illiterate pupils in this remote area of the district. After establishment of such school the people of this locality thought to establish a higher education institution for development of this area. Ashok Ghosh, the general secretary of Forward block as well as the president of Netaji Ashram Trust along with all locale people took initiative for establishment of a college. As a result of their initiative, and at the request of the eminent leaders of the district, this institution, Netaji Subhas Ashram Mahavidyalaya, was set up for the higher education in this block. It was then that this part of Ashram was converted into Netaji Subhas Ashram Mahavidyalaya (25th August 1985). The foundation stone of the Main Academic Building was laid by the Education Minister of State, Mr. Sambhu Ghosh. The college started with eight students. The college possesses undisputed ownership of its total land area of 6.66 Acre and a constructed area of 2823.58 sq.mt.

Currently, the college hosts 08 departments offering regular Major courses. Notably, new programmes introduced during recent times include Major in Kudmali.

The teaching faculty comprises 25 full-time positions, supplemented by SACT teachers to fill any shortages. Additionally, the college faculty also includes 2 temporary lecturer, and 10 support staff. The NSS Unit is highly active, facilitating student engagement in various community service activities
